

FACULTY POSITION: PART-TIME STRINGS INSTRUCTOR: VIOLIN/VIOLA

SPECIALIST: SUZUKI AND TRADITIONAL METHODS

Requirements:

Bachelor of Music or Music Education Degree Violin (and or Viola) required as well as some training in Suzuki Method teaching. Instructor be a good performer. Instructor be able to teach young children through adults, Violin (and/or Viola) through Advanced Levels. Preferred though not required, Instructor be able to teach Cello up to Intermediate Level. Instructor teach Private Lessons weekly through Academic Year, excluding Holiday and Spring Breaks (September through May plus 'Make-Up Week' as needed, first week in June). Instructor teach minimum of (5) five weeks 'Flexible' Summer Semester. Lesson length is generally determined by age and level of advancement: 30; 45; 60 minutes per student. Instructor may also teach weekly Beginning Strings Ensemble (Violin especially, but may include Viola and Cello): two students (minimum) and more. Instructor must have positive attitude; be moral, and ethical.

Experience:

Prior Violin (and/or Viola) teaching of Private/Individual Lessons in Suzuki Method required; prior teaching of Group Lessons and/or Ensembles desirable; preference given to prior teaching experience in Cello as well.

Starting Date:

Fall Semester 2017 (September 'Labor Day' week through end of May 2018 plus 'Make-Up Week' as needed, first week in June); 'Flexible' Summer Semester June 2018 through third week in August.

Salary:

$35.00 hour teaching Private Lessons; Different Salary Scale coaching Ensemble(s).

Send Resume & (3) References to:

Dr. Joan Spicknall, Director

The Suzuki Music School of Maryland, Inc.

director@suzukimusicsschool.com