

FACULTY POSITION: PART-TIME STRINGS INSTRUCTOR: CELLO
SPECIALIST: SUZUKI AND TRADITIONAL

Requirements:

Bachelor of Music or Music Education Degree (Cello) required as well as some training in Suzuki Method teaching. Instructor be good performer. Instructor be able to teach young children through adults, Cello through Advanced Level in addition to Violin, Viola, Bass, at least up to Intermediate Level. Instructor to teach Private Lessons weekly through Academic Year, excluding Holiday and Spring Breaks (September through May plus 'Make Up Week' as needed, as well as 'Flexible' Summer Session. Lesson length is generally determined by age and level of advancement: 30; 45; 60 minutes per student. Instructor may also teach weekly Cello Ensemble: two students minimum and more. Instructor must have positive attitude; be moral, and ethical.

Experience:

Prior Cello teaching of Private/Individual Lessons in Suzuki Method required; prior teaching of Group lessons and/or Ensembles desirable; preference given to prior teaching experience in Violin, Viola, and Bass as well.

Starting Date:

Fall Semester 2017, September 'Labor Day' week up to Holiday Break; Spring Semester 2018, early January through end of May 2018 plus 'Make Up Week' as needed;; Summer Semester 2018, flexible, early June through 3rd Week in August

Send Cover Letter, Resume & (3) References to:

Dr. Joan Spicknall, Director
The Suzuki Music School of Maryland, Inc.

director@suzukimusicsschool.com